

The word of the Lord came to Jonah, saying:
“Set out for the great city of Ninevah,
and announce to it the message that I will tell you.”

Mark relates Jesus calling the first of his disciples, brothers Simon Peter and Andrew. This Gospel presents it in a way that differs from John's version that we heard last weekend. Jesus invites two pairs of brothers, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." Christ's invitation and call still echoes and needs to be heard today. Jesus did not limit his call to discipleship at twelve. Even in biblical times, the number of disciples surpassed the Twelve Apostles depicted in the Last Supper tableau.

His voice, through the living Word of the Gospel and the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, still beckons for disciples. We need young people to open to the Spirit and answer the call to serve as priests, sisters, brothers, deacons, and lay ministers. We all must invite and encourage others to be open to a vocation as Christ's disciple. As we strive renew Christ's Church. We all have a role and responsibility. We all are challenged to accept the call to ministry. Let us open our ears to Christ's voice and hearts to God's love. Let us follow the path of Christ's guidance.

Fishing tales often end with the one that got away. As we follow in the footsteps of the original disciples and endeavor to be fishers of men and women for the faith, let us pray that none escape from the net of Christ and our invitation into his community.

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity ends Thursday, January 25. Unity requires work, commitment, and the Christian virtue of love. As the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are one, may we recognize that we can have a diversity of prayer styles but still find our common bond as sisters and brothers of Christ.

Let us also work to heal divisions and work to realize as citizens the aspiration marked on our coins, "E pluribus unum," or "Out of many, one." In the words Lincoln borrowed from scripture, a house divided against itself cannot stand. The late Cardinal Bernardin worked to bring people together in the search for Common Ground. Let us continue that demanding but necessary task.

Thank you to all who donated money or baby items for THE COURAGE PROGRAM, which supports young pregnant women in bringing their babies to birth and beyond. We collected $1,146 for COURAGE in addition to diapers, pull-ups, and baby wipes. Contact them at (708) 636-8001 if you would like to support the work of COURAGE. Or you can mail a donation to THE COURAGE PROGRAM, 9711 S. Kolin Ave., Oak Lawn, IL 60453. Find out more at www.courageprogram.org.

Tomorrow is a day of prayer for the protection of unborn children. Let us, as individuals and society, commit to providing support that all human life, from conception to natural death, might be valued, nurtured, and protected. Thank you to all who support Courage and The Women's Center in their mission to provide expecting mothers with resources.

Let us unite the causes for life. We need to work to convince society to offer stronger protections and respect for life. Cardinal Bernardin taught a consistent ethic of life with the image of the Seamless Garment (a reference to Christ's clothing at the Passion). Protection of life begins with the unborn child, but does not end there. We should see the life causes as seamless, including the challenges of abortion, capital punishment, euthanasia, and the lack of equal health care. Accessible health care, the dignity of the disabled, and compassionate palliative care at the end of natural life are issues that should be morally linked in the advocacy against abortion. Let us unite in supporting life.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity January 18–25

Prayer for Christian Unity

We pray, O gracious Trinity:
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
that we all may be one as you are one.
In your community of complete unity,
we have our beginning and our end.
To you we pray, asking for the gift of visible unity
among all who believe in your Christ.

As we commemorate this Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, we are reminded by your Word that all human beings are our neighbors and that we are to love them like ourselves and in the same way we love you. Help us to overcome the barriers and divisions we have nurtured against your will.

Grant to us, O Lord, a new Spirit of love and solidarity, that we may proclaim your good news to all of creation. We ask this through your Son, Jesus Christ, who with you and the Holy Spirit are one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

2445 W. 112th Street

Chicago, IL 60655

8:30 Gathering/Light Breakfast

9:00—3:00 Workshop (lunch provided)

Centering Prayer

Centering Prayer is a receptive method of Christian silent prayer which deepens our relationship with God, the Indwelling Presence... a prayer in which we can experience God's presence within us, closer than breathing, closer than thinking, closer than consciousness itself.

If you are new to Centering Prayer or would like to deepen and reinvigorate your practice, please consider participating in this workshop. Introductory workshop presenters are specifically trained in this course. The days program explores the place of contemplative prayer in the Christian tradition, the conceptual background of Centering Prayer, psychological processes and insights into establishing Centering Prayer as a way of life. To register visit our web site at www.cajetan.org or contact Deacon Joe at jroccasalva@cajetan.org or 773-474-7814

Keeping Silence

In the liturgy, we are silent, silent together. This is not an individual silence, even though each of us—as best as each of is able—is quiet. This is not a passive silence, even though we try to be as still as we can be. We are silent together, actively quiet, purposely still. We're silent before the liturgy begins, in order to be present to each other and thus find God. God is always present to us; we forget that sometimes, fail to hear God amid our noisy living. So before we wrestle with God in our rites, we are silent: Be still, and know that I am God.

The liturgy's silences both tax and nourish us. They tire us because they are active moments, concentrated periods of deliberate, attentive, awe-filled stillness. But they nourish us as well. They are vitamins for a life made anemic with noise, tonic for the blathering (the world's and our own) that sometimes sickens us. The moments of communal silence in the liturgy plant seeds of peace in our souls, so that in the turmoil of every day life we can find a still center inside and hear the voice of God.

We are silent at the words "Let us pray." These words begin the opening prayer and prayer after communion at Mass, as well as the prayers after the psalms at morning and evening prayer. At this invitation, we pray and we pray hard and we pray hard together, so that when the priest speaks, all of our prayers are drawn to those words like metal shavings to a magnet. One voice breaks the silence with words of prayer, and one mighty voice, spoken from all of our throats, seals that prayer: "Amen!"

We are silent after readings of scripture and after the homily. How else can God speak to us? How else are we to hear the divine voice, not only echoing from long ago in ancient words brought back to life, but speaking now, in this time, in the quiet that we provide here? After the readings and the homily, we are silent together because we are listening together for the voice on which our very lives depend, the voice that calls us into being, the voice that bids us to come out of our dumb tombs to live and to love again.

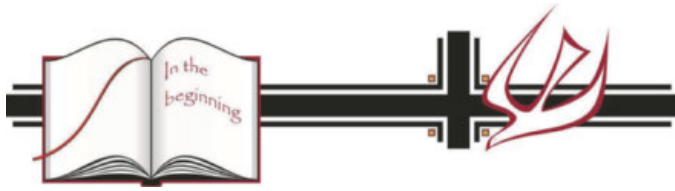

On occasion, instead of singing, we may be silent when the gifts of money are gathered for the poor and for the church, and when the gifts of bread and wine are brought to the altar. And when all have been fed, when all have drank from the cup, again we are silent, caught up in the reverie of great mystery, standing together wide-eyed and satisfied, breathing quiet gratitude for life breaking out everywhere, enjoying the quiet of this moment before an eternal dawn, when God will be all in all and the final silence will be ruptured with raucous, joyous cries of "Worthy! Worthy! Worthy!"

Keeping Teen Relationships Healthy and Safe

Parents, guardians, and grandparents, of junior high and high school teenagers, as well as school personnel and interested adults are encouraged to attend a presentation on Teen Dating Violence at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, February 6. The program will be offered by the staff of A New Direction and is sponsored by the Domestic Violence Awareness Committees of Christ the King, St. John Fisher, St. Cajetan, St. Christina and St. Barnabas. It will be at Christ the King Church. 9345 S Hamilton Avenue. Ericka Swanson and Rita Ryan of A New Direction will define abuse, show patterns of abuse in relation to Teen Dating Violence, and will introduce scenarios and helpful resources. Learning about healthy relationships at this age can go a long way towards stopping the cycle of Domestic Violence, and can set youth on a better path for future relationships.
