This Sunday is Laetare Sunday, signifying that we are more than halfway through Lent. It is a good time to take stock of how we are doing with our prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. If you haven't been progressing very well -or at all- there is still time. The Lord isn't asking us for perfection, but he is asking for a little bit of effort. We see that in this Sunday's First Reading taken from the Book of Chronicles. The people, priests, and princes of Judah had completely ignored the practices of their religion. The Lord sent them messengers, prophets, and other warnings urging them to turn back to God. God was giving them every opportunity to repent because he had compassion for his people. And yet, they refused to change their sinful ways. The righteous wrath of God was unloosed upon the people; their enemies, the Babylonians, destroyed the temple, tore down the walls of Jerusalem, and took the survivors to Babylon, where they remained in exile for seventy years.

They had those seventy years to think about what they had done and what they had failed to do. Their salvation or liberation came from an unexpected source: Cyrus, the king of Persia, who defeated the Babylonians and liberated the people of Israel. He sent them back to their homeland and instructed them to build a temple in Jerusalem to their God, who had instructed him, a pagan, to do so. Imagine that: The God of Israel instructed a pagan king to do God's will, and he complied! That must have been pretty humbling for the people of Israel. God sometimes works in unconventional and mysterious ways.

In today's Gospel, we see how much our God truly loves us. It begins with Nicodemus coming to visit Jesus at night. He was a pharisee, a leader, and a teacher among the Jews. He wanted to know who Jesus was. Earlier in the Gospel (John 3:2) he states, "we know that you are a teacher who has come from God." Clearly, Nicodemus wanted to know more about Jesus and his purpose. Jesus explained to him what must happen: "Just as Moses lifted up* the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life." (John 3:14-15) Then we come to one of the most well-known verses of scripture: John 3:16. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." Jesus was telling Nicodemus what was going to happen: The Passion, Death, Resurrection, and the Ascension of the Christ, the anointed one, the Messiah. The Gospel does not tell us anymore about Nicodemus. We are left hanging as to what Nicodemus understood or believed.

We have the luxury of knowing how the story ends; Nicodemus did not. We are living with the history of our Faith as presented through the Gospels. Nicodemus had to live in that moment. Just like many stories in the Gospels, we don't get to find out what happens to someone after they had encountered Christ. We don't know what happened to people who were cured by him, or had demons cast out of them. They had encountered Christ in a powerful way. Did it change them, or did they just go back to "normal" living, possibly never thinking very much more about what had happened. We meet these people in a midpoint of their lives, but we don't know their endings. My hunch is that it was done on purpose because it begs the question, "How are we different after we encounter Christ?" Do we change the way we act, becoming more loving and merciful, or do we just go on with life saying "That was nice, but..." That is the beauty of the Gospels. They leave us with many questions to ponder and they give us the answer to all of them: Jesus, the Christ.

Fr. Ken

Just a reminder: Next Sunday is the Southside Irish Parade. There are no 11:00 a.m. Masses at either St. John Fisher or St. Cajetan. Plan accordingly...

St. John Fisher's St. Patrick's Celebration

Thank you to our 3rd graders who presented the Life of St. Patrick! After Mass on Saturday, March 9, the celebration continues in SJF's Conner Lowry Gym. Join us for food, fun, drink, music, dancing, and some fine craic (a good time).

Remember:
There will be no 11:00 a.m.
Mass next Sunday, March 17,
because of the South Side
Irish St. Patrick's Day Parade.

Pro Labore Dei News

PRO LABORE DEI sent 159 lunches to Robbins last week. SJF is the best!

The next lunch making session is Saturday, April 6, at 9:15 a.m.

Our current needs are several large jars of mayo and our volunteers. Food collection continues on Saturday morning from 9:30–10:00 a.m. in the SJF parking lot. The ITEM OF THE MONTH for March will be BEANS of any kind. We also collect other foods and diapers size 4, 5, and 6 to bolster our pantry.

Finally, a reminder that we are collecting Easter baskets for the clients of PRO LABORE DEI. We will need them turned in by March 21.

As always, thanks for everything. You make our mission run like clockwork.

St. John Fisher Parish Mission Statement

We, the Catholic Community of St. John Fisher, formed by the gospel, nourished by the Eucharist, and united by love, are called to celebrate the kingdom of God and proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ in word and action.

Taller de José (St. Joseph's Workshop)

Taller de José is a community resource center offering services of accompaniment to people in need, connecting people to services and services to people. Taller de José was founded by the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph.

Accompanying “Martin” at Taller de José

Martin came to Taller de José because he was in need of specialty care after finding a lump in his armpit that his doctor said needed to be checked out at a cancer center. Martin had never been to the Illinois Medical District where the cancer center was located and was nervous about the appointment. A companion from Taller de José was able to accompany Martin and interpret for him during the appointment since he does not speak English. Martin felt more confident and assured during a scary situation and at the follow up appointment he found out that the lump was a harmless cyst.

Note: All stories are based on real client experiences.

Names have been altered to protect client privacy.

Won't you join Taller de José in providing accompaniment to those like Martin?

This Lenten season, the St. John Fisher community is invited into a deeper commitment to live our Christian life by sharing its resources with the neighbors served by Taller de José. All donations received from the Holy Thursday collection will help to provide to our brothers and sisters in need the support and guidance offered to all, free of charge, at Taller de José.

Lenten Regulations

The Lenten regulations are as follows:

1. Abstinence from meats is to be observed by all Catholics 14 years old and older on Ash Wednesday and on all the Fridays of Lent.
2. Fasting is to be observed on Ash Wednesday by all Catholics who are 18 years of age but not yet 59. Those who are bound by this may take only one full meal. Two smaller meals are permitted if necessary to maintain strength according to one's needs, but eating solid foods between meals is not permitted.

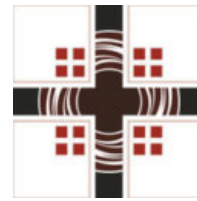

The special paschal fast and abstinence are prescribed for Good Friday and encouraged for Holy Saturday.

Bulletin Deadlines

We strive to communicate what is happening at St. John Fisher and surroundings. Items are due at the office by Friday at 2:00 p.m., nine days before the target bulletin (note earlier deadlines around holidays). Digital formats of Word, JPEG, or even email if simple text would help us. Full-page items limit flexibility, so including half-page and quarter page options make it more likely to run.
