As we prepare for Holy Week, we first must pass through Palm Sunday, which previews for us what is to happen in the coming week. It has always been an emotional day for me. As a young person, I really focused on the (long) Passion read at the Gospel. I would think "Who would do this to Jesus?" and feel terrible as we would say "Crucify Him!" As I got older, I began to think about the opening Gospel before the blessing of the palms, where Jesus triumphantly enters into Jerusalem. Who doesn't like a good story? It actually explained why we had those palms: to lay them before Jesus as he entered the city among cries of "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" As I matured, I began to see that the opening Gospel and the Passion were one continuous motion, a movement from triumph to tragedy.

The Gospel of Mark, from which our opening gospel and the Passion are taken, was the first Gospel, written around 70 AD. It is the shortest of the Gospels. It was written, partly, in order that the people who actually witnessed the events in Jesus' life could have their stories and memories recorded before they died. It is written as a narrative -people relating the things in the manner of "...then this happened, and that happened next." There is very little embellishment or commentary. It was meant to record just the facts. Interestingly, Mark's Gospel does not include the birth of Jesus.

The Gospel of Mark gives us the perspective of being eyewitnesses to the events going on. As Jesus enters into Jerusalem we can envision the crowds welcoming and praising him, waving palm branches. There is a feeling that something great is going to happen. We are given hope. As we reach the Passion, hope seems to disappear. The gospel of Mark presents the story of the Passion as a sequence of events with little commentary or theological reflection. We are there at the First Eucharist -the Last Supper. We accompany Jesus as he and his apostles pray, and Jesus agonizes over what he will have to go through. We are there as Jesus is betrayed by Judas. We witness Jesus before Pontius Pilate, who does not want to execute Jesus, asking the crowd what he should do with Jesus. They shout, "Crucify him!" And we know the rest of the story.

We can easily say that all of those events happened in the past, and that we are reading them as history. But I always try to put myself as being there in person, as one of the crowd shouting, "Hosanna to our King!" And as part of that same crowd who is shouting "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!" Because you see, we are capable of both actions, and many times in our life we can find ourselves praising God one moment and denying him in the next. We humans are a fickle race. Fortunately, we have a loving and forgiving God who sent his only Son to save us by his passion, death, resurrection, and ascension into heaven.

This coming week, Holy Week, take some time to pray about the events leading up to Easter. Take time as we begin the Triduum -the three days leading up to the celebration of Christ's resurrection- Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday. Each of those days has its own distinct liturgy but is seen as one continuous Liturgy by the Church. We will witness the institution of the Eucharist on Holy Thursday, accompany Jesus during his passion, death, and burial on Good Friday, and await his resurrection at the Holy Saturday Vigil. This is the holiest time in the faith life of our Catholic Church. Don't leave Jesus standing alone.

Fr. Ken

St. John Fisher Parish Mission Statement

We, the Catholic Community of St. John Fisher, formed by the gospel, nourished by the Eucharist, and united by love, are called to celebrate the kingdom of God and proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ in word and action.

Taller de José (St. Joseph's Workshop)

This Lent, we have reflected on our values as Christians and how we live them. In this time of fasting and praying, we also commit to "give alms," to share our resources with our neighbors who are in need. This year, we invite the St. John Fisher community to share its resources with neighbors served by Taller de José

Taller de José is a community resource center, located in Chicago's Little Village, which offers accompaniment to people in need, connecting people to services and services to people. Founded by the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph, Taller de José exists to fulfill the mission of Jesus, "that all may be one."

Accompaniment is a unique service in a city abounding with government agencies and resources. The staff of Taller de José offers companionship and personal attention to underserved people to help them to navigate the social service system and connect them to the resources they need. While accompanying a client, the staff is a supportive presence, at times offering information, translation, direction, emotional support, and advocacy for the client. Staff members also accompany clients by physically walking with them to appointments and services throughout Chicago via public transportation.

Won't you join Taller de José in providing accompaniment to those in need?

On Holy Thursday, please consider making a donation to the collection.

All donations received on Holy Thursday will help to provide our sisters and brothers in need with the support and guidance offered to all, free of charge, at Taller de José.

You can also donate at www.tallerdejose.org.

We invite you to journey with us and our clients this Lenten season by reading the bulletin every week to hear the stories of our brothers and sisters served at Taller de José.

Pilgrims, Palms, Processions

Next Sunday is Palm Sunday, and we will meet outside of our normal place of worship to hear about how Jesus entered Jerusalem in triumph before his passion, death and resurrection. Then we will bless palm branches—branches carried by us as pilgrims. And like the children of Jerusalem we will walk and sing in procession. The gospel that we have been listening to all year long now has been leading us to this journey to Jerusalem, this procession to the supper table, the cross and the tomb.

When we accept the palm branches next week, we promise to live as pilgrims, to move through this life with and to Jesus. Like the Israelites in the desert, we are only passing through. Like Christ himself, we go about carrying good news, even when we walk the way of tears. Come prepared next week to walk and sing together as fellow travelers. We will walk behind our cross to our holy table—Jerusalem, in our own neighborhood. And this procession will be practice for an even more awesome journey that we will make in two weeks—the Easter Vigil's procession to the font of baptism—that place where we die to sin and rise in love to life everlasting.

Will You Join Us?

You know Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist, but many people haven't yet received this gift of faith. And even more don't realize how central this sacrament is to our salvation itself. So, let's show them!

This summer, the Eucharist will take center stage in a major U.S. stadium. Catholics from all over the United States will gather at the feet of Jesus Christ to worship him in a way this generation has never seen.

It's time to remind the world Jesus is still with us—Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. Your presence at the National Eucharistic Congress is a public witness that Jesus is powerfully present and active in our midst. Learn more at EucharisticCongress.org.

What: 10th National Eucharistic Congress

When: July 17–21, 2024

Where: Lucas Oil Stadium,

WE ARE IN THE MIDST OF A NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL!

The Church needs healing, and the world needs Jesus. The Holy Spirit is inviting us to return to the source and summit of our faith—the Eucharist.

Which Three Days Are The Three Days?

There's a lot of talk in church now about "the Three Days," or in Latin, the "Triduum." These are our most holy of days. They make up our most important single celebration of the year: Easter. But exactly which three days make up the Triduum?

At first this sounds like a stupid question such as, "What color was Napoleon's white horse?" or "Who's buried in Grant's tomb?" Actually, it's a trick question. Most would say that the Three Days are Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. And that's wrong! (How could Easter Sunday not be one of the Three Days?!)

The three days of the Triduum are counted using the Jewish way of keeping time: from sunset to sunset. So the first day of the Triduum is from sunset on Holy Thursday until sunset on Good Friday. The second day is from sunset on Good Friday until sunset on Holy Saturday. The third day is from sunset Holy Saturday (the great Easter Vigil) to sunset Easter Sunday (Paschal Vespers).

Does this make any difference—or is it only good Catholic trivia? Here's the difference that it makes. We tend to think of the Three Days as commemorating separate, distinct events: On Holy Thursday we remember the Last Supper, on Good Friday we recall the passion and on Holy Saturday the resurrection. But in our liturgy, the church thinks about the Last Supper not as the last thing that happened on Holy Thursday, but as the first thing to happen on Good Friday. What new insights into the eucharist do you have when you think of it as the first act of Christ's passion? What new understanding of Sabbath—the day of rest—do you have when you reflect on the fact that Jesus slept in death from sunset Friday and all through the Jewish Sabbath, Saturday? And how might we spend our Saturday nights if we understood them to truly be the beginning of Sunday—not just during the Triduum, but year round? What does it mean when the deacon or cantor sings at the Vigil that because of the resurrection, this night is brighter than any day?

These Three Days are a single moment. We walk (or crawl) into this moment on Thursday night and walk (or dance) out on Easter day. In between, there's a flood of stories and songs, rites and rest, fasting and feasting. The Three Days are time out of time, the center of our year and of our life.
